Sacred music concert

THE Tamboerskloof Musiekkomitee is to present a programme of sacred music at the Tamboerskloof Dutch Reformed Church at 7pm on Sunday.

The Tamboerskloof Kerkkoor and Ensemble, choirs of St Cyprian's and Jan van Riebeeck primary and high schools and soloists including Virginia Oosthuizen and DeWet van Rooyen will perform works by Bach, Handel, Mozart, Mendelssohn and Elgar. Roucher du Toit will direct with instrumentalists Wendy-Ann Woodland (organ), Jane Theron (harp) and Thinus Theron (trumpet).

The concert will be repeated on Sunday, May 21 at the La Rochelle church, Bellville and on May 28 at the Andrew Murray Church, Wellington. Entry is free and a collection will be held afterwards.

Classics from elite orchestra

Weekend Argus Reporter

SOME of South Africa's finest talents are set to make music at the Anderson Hall on the Helderberg College campus tonight.

Cape Town's Groote Kerk Chamber Orchestra, under the baton of Roucher du Toit and led by Patricio Cadiz, will be performing works by Mozart and other classic composers.

Members of the Groote Kerk Chamber Orchestra have been hand-picked from the principle players of the Cape Town Symphony and the Cape Philharmonic orchestras.

Tonight's concert — the first in a series — consists of three popular works: Mozart's Eine Kleine Nacht Musik, DeVienne's Bassoon Quartette, and Mozart's Divertimento K137.
